COMPLAINT

NOW COMES, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, by and through his counsel, John R. Angotti, David J. Straface, Chad C. Groome and Angotti & Straface, L.C., and for his Complaint against the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and John Doe Entities and/or Persons, hereby alleges as follows:

1. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, is a resident of Morgantown, Monongalia County, West Virginia.
2. Upon information and belief, the defendant, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation, is a foreign corporation licensed to conduct business in the State of West Virginia at and does business in the State of West Virginia as Clean Earth of Morgantown by operating the facility known as Clean Earth Waste Disposal & Recycling Facility at or near 1750 Morgantown Industrial Park, Morgantown, Monongalia County, West Virginia 26501. Upon further information and belief, the defendant, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation, has a service of process address registered with the West Virginia Secretary of State of c/o Corporation Service Company, 209 W. Washington Street, Charleston, WV 25302.

3. Upon information and belief, the defendant, Stericycle, Inc., is a foreign corporation licensed to conduct business in the State of West Virginia and has a service of process address registered with the West Virginia Secretary of State of c/o CT Corporation System, 1627 Quarrier Street, Charleston, WV 25311-2124.
4. Upon information and belief, the defendant, Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, is a foreign corporation that is not licensed to conduct business in the State of West Virginia. Upon further information and belief, defendant, Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, has a principal place of business of 421 Lycaste Street, Detroit, Michigan 48214, where it operates and/or manages a facility involved in the processing, disposal, and/or transport of waste, including hazardous waste.
5. Defendant(s) John Doe Entities and/or Persons are any and all entities and/or persons who are unknown to the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, and/or who may have been involved in the underlying acts and/or omissions leading to plaintiff's injuries and/or damages and/or which may be vicariously liable for the same, including, but certainly not limited to, any entities or persons in any manner involved in the operation and/or management of the Clean Earth Waste Disposal & Recycling Facility at or near 1750 Morgantown Industrial Park, Morgantown, Monongalia County, West Virginia 26501; any entities or persons in any manner involved in the preparation and/or transport of the subject waste material at issue in this matter; any parent, sister, subsidiary, and/or related entities to the named defendants; and/or any predecessors-in-interest and/or successors-in-interest to the named defendants.

6. The Circuit Court of Monongalia County, West Virginia, has subject matter jurisdiction over plaintiff Andrew Ebling's claims and may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over the defendants.
7. The Circuit Court of Monongalia County, West Virginia, is a proper venue for the instant civil action.
8. At all times material and relevant, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was employed by Express Professional Employment Temp Agency.
9. Plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was assigned by Express Professional Employment Temp Agency to work as a laborer at the Clean Earth Waste Disposal and Recycling Facility located at 1750 Morgantown Industrial Park, Morgantown, West Virginia 26501.
10. On July 13, 2018, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was working as a laborer for Express Professional Employment Temp Agency at the aforementioned Clean Earth Waste Disposal and Recycling Facility.
11. On the aforesaid date, plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was sorting waste material at the aforesaid facility that was laid down on a large work table within the facility.
12. The aforementioned waste material was not labeled as "medical waste" or "biohazard waste" and in no manner placed the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, on notice that the same contained or could contain medical and/or biohazardous wastes, including sharps.

13. Upon information and belief, defendants, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, did deliver the aforementioned waste material to defendant, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons for processing.
14. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, grabbed a plastic bag containing the aforementioned waste material that had been placed on the table and was stabbed in the index finger by a used hypodermic needle contained in the waste material.
15. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, immediately began to bleed profusely from his index finger, experienced severe pain, and feared for his health, safety, and welfare.
16. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was taken to a local emergency room for care, treatment, and testing.
17. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was required to undergo medical treatment as a result of the aforementioned incident including, but not limited to, blood and lab testing, pathogen testing, and immunizations.
18. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was further required to undergo a regimen of HIV medications and/or anti-virals that had serious side effects and/or which caused the plaintiff additional pain and physical suffering.
19. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, incurred approximately Two Thousand Seven Hundred Eighty-Nine and 90/100 Dollars ($2,789.90) in medical specials to date for the treatment and/or monitoring of his needle stick injury and anticipates further medical monitoring of his condition.

COUNT I

Negligence and/or Reckless Conduct

20. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, incorporates by reference the allegations of his Complaint at paragraphs one (1) through nineteen (19) as if fully set forth herein.
21. Upon information and belief, the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, knew or should have known that the aforementioned waste materials contained hazardous, biohazardous and/or medical waste and/or was at risk for containing the same.
22. Upon information and belief, the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, knew or should have known that the aforementioned waste materials should not have contained hazardous, biohazardous, and/or medical waste.
23. Upon information and belief, the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, knew or should have known of the foreseeable risks to others in the processing, handling, and/or waste management services chain of injury, disease and harm from the aforementioned waste materials containing hazardous, biohazardous, and/or medical waste.
24. Upon information and belief, the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, knew or should have known that necessary and/or required safety and/or training precautions and/or standard operating procedures/policies for the shipment of and/or processing of waste containing hazardous, biohazardous, and/or medical waste and the protections of others from said waste.

25. The defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, owed the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, a duty of reasonable and/or ordinary care to protect him from injury and/or harm from hazardous, medical and/or biohazardous waste processed, handled, transported and/or shipped by them.

26. Moreover, upon further information and belief, the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, had a duty to comply with federal, state, and local statutes, regulations, laws and policies, and/or well-recognized industry standards for the safe processing, handling, transporting, and/or shipping of hazardous, medical and/or biohazardous waste.

27. The defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, did breach those duties toward plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, by and through their acts and/or omissions set forth hereinabove and which amount to negligent and/or reckless conduct in one or more of the following particulars:

- a. Improperly introducing hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste to the subject facility;
- b. Failure to properly and/or safely inspect waste for hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste;
- c. Failure to properly and/or safely transport, ship and/or process hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste to and/or at the subject facility;
- d. Failure to properly and/or safely identify, label, and/or warn of hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste sent to or received at the subject facility;
- e. Failure to adhere to or implement adequate policies and/or procedures for the safe transport, shipment, handling, and/or processing of hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste;
- f. Failure to adhere to or implement adequate policies and/or procedures for the identification of hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste and/or inspection of waste for hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste;
- g. Failure to adhere to or implement adequate policies and/or procedures for the prevention of accidental and/or unintended introduction of hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste to the subject facility;
- h. Failure to train regarding the safe transport, shipment, handling and/or processing of hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste;
- i. Failure to provide adequate safety equipment and/or processes to protect others from exposure and/or injury from hazardous, medical, and/or biohazardous waste;

- j. Negligent preparation of and/or review of shipping manifest;
- k. Negligent hiring and/or supervision;
- l. Failure to adhere to relevant federal, state, and local statutes, regulations, laws and policies, and/or well-recognized industry standards for the safe processing, handling, transporting, and/or shipping of hazardous, medical and/or biohazardous waste;
- m. Failure to use due care generally; and/or
- n. Other acts and/or omissions hereinafter discovered.

28. Alternatively and/or in addition thereto, the defendants are vicariously liable for the conduct of the other defendants under principles of agency and/or joint venture.

29. As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' acts and/or omissions set forth above, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, suffered a physical bodily injury requiring medical treatment and an injury to his psyche for which he should be compensated.

30. As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' acts and/or omissions set forth above, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, suffered damages including, but certainly not limited to, physical pain and suffering, severe mental and emotional distress, annoyance, inconvenience, fear, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of the enjoyment of his life, medical bills, economic loss, and other general and/or special damages for which he should be compensated.

31. Due to the nature of the injury done to him, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, is reasonably certain to incur future or ongoing damages including, but certainly not limited to, physical pain and suffering, severe mental and emotional distress, annoyance, inconvenience, fear, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of the enjoyment of his life, medical bills, medical monitoring for exposure to blood-borne pathogens, economic loss, and other general and/or special damages for which he should be compensated.

32. The acts and/or omissions of the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, are willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, grossly negligent, and/or done with actual malice toward the plaintiff or a conscious, reckless and outrageous indifference to the health, safety and welfare of the plaintiff and others entitling the plaintiff to an award of punitive and/or exemplary damages to punish the defendants and/or to dissuade the defendants and others similarly situated from engaging in similar conduct in the future.

COUNT II

Tort of Outrage

33. The plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, incorporates by reference the allegations of his Complaint at paragraphs one (1) through thirty-two (32) as if fully set forth herein.

34. The conduct of the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, was atrocious, intolerable, and so extreme and outrageous as to exceed the bounds of decency.

35. The defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, acted with the intent to inflict emotional distress, or acted recklessly when it was certain or substantially certain emotional distress would result from their conduct.

36. The actions of the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, caused the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, to suffer emotional distress.

37. The emotional distress suffered by the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, was so severe that no reasonable person could be expected to endure it.

38. As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' acts and/or omissions set forth above, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, suffered a physical bodily injury requiring medical treatment and an injury to his psyche for which he should be compensated.

39. As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' acts and/or omissions set forth above, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, suffered damages including, but certainly not limited to, physical pain and suffering, severe mental and emotional distress, annoyance, inconvenience, fear, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of the enjoyment of his life, medical bills, economic loss, and other general and/or special damages for which he should be compensated.

40. Due to the nature of the injury done to him, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, is reasonably certain to incur future or ongoing damages including, but certainly not limited to, physical pain and suffering, severe mental and emotional distress, annoyance, inconvenience, fear, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of the enjoyment of his life, medical bills, medical monitoring for exposure to blood-borne pathogens, economic loss, and other general and/or special damages for which he should be compensated.

41. The acts and/or omissions of the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, are willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, grossly negligent, and/or done with actual malice toward the plaintiff or a conscious, reckless and outrageous indifference to the health, safety and welfare of the plaintiff and others entitling the plaintiff to an award of punitive and/or exemplary damages to punish the defendants and/or to dissuade the defendants and others similarly situated from engaging in similar conduct in the future.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff, Andrew Ebling, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby demands judgment against the defendants, AES Asset Acquisition Corporation d/b/a Clean Earth of Morgantown, Stericycle, Inc., Petro-Chem Processing Group of Nortu, LLC, and/or John Doe Entities and/or Persons, jointly and severally where allowable by law, for compensatory damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional threshold of the Court and sufficient to make him whole for his injuries and conditions proximately caused by the defendants, for punitive damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional threshold of the Court and sufficient to punish the defendants and/or to dissuade the defendants and others similarly situated from engaging in similar conduct in the future, for attorney's fees, litigation costs, and/or pre-/post-judgment interest where allowable by law, and for such additional favorable relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.

A JURY TRIAL IS DEMANDED ON ALL ISSUES.

Respectfully Submitted,
ANDREW EBLING, Plaintiff,
